The Entrepreneurship Summit is a two-day conference sponsored by the J. Lawrence Connolly Center for Entrepreneurship. The event takes place each fall and provides an opportunity for students, faculty and alumni to come together, exchange ideas and develop valuable connections for current and future entrepreneurial endeavors. Each year, select, featured alumni come back to campus to participate in the program.

About W&L

Founded in 1749, Washington and Lee University is named for the nation's first President George Washington and Robert E. Lee, who was president of Washington College from 1865 to 1870.

Washington and Lee University is located in the State of Virginia and composed of two undergraduate divisions, the Williams School of Commerce, Economics, and Politics, (the only fully-accredited business school among the nation's top-tier liberal arts colleges), and a graduate School of Law.
