

We're very pleased to announce that WebProtectMe is now certified by Privacy Shield , in addition to our existing full compliance with the EU's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

- Enhanced Privacy Policy - Our privacy policy has been restructured to better explain the types of data WebProtectMe stores, and how long we keep that data around. We also include links to the privacy and data retention policies of our vendors. We want you to be comfortable with how we take care of your data.

- Granular Consent - We've separated agreeing to our Terms of Service from granting us permission to contact you with information about WebProtectMe. You can change your contact settings anytime from: webprotectme.com/admin/account

- Right to be Forgotten - We love being able to serve you, and understand sometimes you may want to delete your account information. You can now do that on-demand from webprotectme.com/admin/account

- Data Export - Your data is your data. If you'd like to keep a copy for safe keeping, or use it somewhere else on the Internet, you can request a portable copy of your data from WebProtectMe Support

. Just let us know, and we'll send an e-mail to your primary admin account with download links to copies of your account settings and protection settings. Premium customers also receive links to copies of their purchase history and browsing activity.

Your privacy is important to us, and we want you to feel comfortable. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to ask !
